TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Mr. Leonidas J. Gutierrez was a long time employee of the University of Missouri prior to his development of Millennium Global Prosperity. He is well known in the St. Louis community and has been active in Hispanic and Latino organizations including the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. I have worked with him in this capacity as well as on university activities. His knowledge and understanding of the Latino community and of Latin American issues have been helpful to the University over the years.

While the University does not have any direct interest in Millennium Global Prosperity nor does it have any direct links to this organization, I am supportive of the mission and purpose of MGP and would certainly work with them under appropriate circumstances.

Sincerely,
